

Neighborhood Health Ambassador

Columbus Public Health is looking for passionate community ambassadors to help spread important health information and relay community concerns back to us. If you'd like to make a positive impact in your community, become a Neighborhood Health Ambassador today!

Are you passionate about local issues related to public health such as nutrition, mental health, safety, education, income and unemployment?

Do you want to make a positive impact in your community?

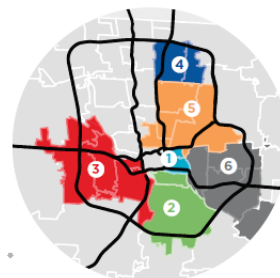

Become a Neighborhood Health Ambassador!

What is a Neighborhood Health Ambassador (NHA)?

- Grass Roots Advocate: Attends community events like area commission meetings, civic association meetings, block watch, etc. and shares information about NHA to identify opportunities to collaborate.
- Columbus Public Health Community Liaison: Collaboratively facilitates meetings with Columbus Public Health staff at least twice a year to maintain a regular connection with community resources and allow for a rapid response to public health issues.
- Trained Community Resource: Educates neighbors at community meetings on emerging public health topics and shares trusted, local resources that address public health issues and concerns.

NHA Communities

1. Near East (43203, 43205)
2. South Side (43206, 43207)
3. Westside (43204, 43222, 43223, 43228)
4. North Side (43229, 43231)
5. Central (43201, 43211, 43219, parts of 43224)
6. Far East (43110, 43209, 43213, 43227, 43232)

The NHA Commitment

- Serve for 3 years (option to serve a second term).
- Attend a minimum of 4 community meetings each year and provide a brief written summary to Columbus Public Health of topics discussed at meetings.
- Attend trainings provided by Columbus Public Health in order to better understand public health, the role of NHAs and related available local resources.
- Preferably available some evenings and weekends, and have the flexibility to interact with residents in multiple settings where they live, work, play or pray.
- Preferably live in the area they will be representing; however, those who are vested in the neighborhood because of their job can also be considered.
